Seniors

The Class of 1961 has many fond memories of the past year. From the start of the school year down to Graduation night, the Seniors were kept busy making the most of their last year. Although each Senior probably has a list of his own, some of the main highlights of the year were: For the first time in the history of the class the Seniors won first prize in the Homecoming float competition. On the evenings of April 21-22 the class presented "Home Sweet Homicide," a well received mystery comedy. No doubt the highlight of the year was the weekend of May 11-14 which the Seniors spent in Winnipeg, seeing the sights. The Baccalaureate sermon was given by Rev. J. G. Sortland of the Methodist church on May 21. Following Award Night on May 22, Seniors and their parents were guests of the Juniors for the traditional Class Night held this year in the Brethren Church parlors. And finally, on May 26, the class occupied the place of honor on the gymnasium stage. Dr. Laurence Flaum of Minot State Teachers College gave a very fine address. Lois Garst gave the valedictory and Joan Houtcooper the salutatory. As the class received their coveted diplomas from School Board President Art Torkelson, they realized that one of the most happy chapters of their lives had just closed.

Senior Play

"Home Sweet Homicide," featuring the mystery story writer, Marian Carstairs and her three children, was a mystery comedy.

The children had decided their mother should marry again when a murder was committed next door. Upon seeing Lt. Bill Smith, they decided he was just the man for their mother.

The mystery is finally solved after hilarious interference from the three children.

Services for the Graduates

Services for the graduates were held Sunday evening, May 21, in the gymnasium. Mrs. Riggs Opland played the processional and recessional. Rev. J. G. Sortland of the Methodist Church was the speaker. The title of his sermon was "The Right to Reign." The high school mixed chorus sang "O Sing Unto the Lord a New Song," and "Be Thou Not Still."

Salutatory

Graduation

Valedictory

Graduation exercises for the Class of 1961 were held Friday, May 26, at 8 P.M. in the gymnasium. The high school band played the processional, recessional, and "March," by Holst. Speaker for the evening was Dr. Laurence S. Flaum, Dean of the College at Minot State Teachers College. His address was titled "America at the Crossroads." Lois Garst gave the valedictory and Joan Houtcooper the salutatory. The recipient of the Roy and Mae Canfield scholarship was Lois Garst. The court sang "America the Beautiful," and "Climb Ev'ry Mountain." Rev. T. A. Rykken gave both the invocation and the benediction.

SENIOR TRIP

The Legislative Building

Inside the Legislative building

The Seniors left on their class trip to Winnipeg on Thursday, May 11. Friday and Saturday were spent touring various points of interest, including the Coca-Cola bottling plant, Canadian Packers, Winnipeg Tribune, CBW TV-Radio Station, the Legislative Building, and St. Boniface Cathedral. An added highlight of the trip for several class members was a concert by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra under Leonard Bernstein.

Junior Activities

In September the Junior's Homecoming Queen candidate, Janice Halversen, was chosen by the football team to reign over the Homecoming activities.

In November the Junior Class presented three one-act plays, one of which "Where the Cross is Made," participated in both the District and State Speech contests.

In January Bernadette MacDonald was crowned Snow Queen for the March of Dimes Benefit Drive.

In May the Juniors entertained the high school students and faculty at a prom, "Wonderland by Night." Roger Hofstad was prom manager and Mary Eggl was prom queen.

After a very active year, the Juniors realize that they are only one school term away from ending their school days at CHS.

As the largest class in Senior High, (we're bragging) we were well represented during the year.

One half of the basketball team was sophomores and one of our girls was a cheerleader.

We had charge of the bonfire at the snake dance and we entered a hopeless float in the Homecoming parade.

We were proud to have one of our boys chosen as the "Snow King" during the March of Dimes campaign.

We were well represented in band and choir with entrants in the District speech and small groups contests.

Three of our girls were delegates to the State F.H.A. Convention in Fargo.

To stir things up in Cando High School we had a "cool" beatnik party.

After a busy and funfilled year, we are looking forward to an even better one next year.

PROM HI-LITES

On May 6, 1961, the big social event of the year took place in the school gymnasium with the presentation of the Junior-Senior Prom.

The theme, Wonderland by Night, was very nicely shown by a painting of a moon winking and shining on a lake. The punch bowl was sunk in a wishing well and the punch was served by two eighth grade girls. The Sparkletones provided a variety of dance numbers to make the evening enjoyable.

The coronation climaxed the evening with the crowning of Mary Eggl by the 1960 Queen, Irene Carlson. The Grand March was led by Queen Mary and Manager Roger Hofstad.

HIGHLIGHTS

The events that happened during the school year of 1960-61 will probably go down as some of the most noteworthy and important events of the century.

The national election took most of the spotlight during the fall and early winter months as Republican Richard M. Nixon and Democrat John F. Kennedy campaigned down to the last minute. Kennedy emerged the victor after a close election.

North Dakota did a turn about in the state election by voting into the governor's position William Guy, the first Democratic governor since the 1930's. Our Republican state legislature ratified the name change of the Agriculture College to the North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Sciences.

There was much bloodshed and turmoil as three new trouble spots--the Congo, Laos, and Cuba--were thrust into an already uneasy world situation.

But the world of science took a giant step forward as the Russians shot Yuri Gagarin into a single orbit around the earth and returned him safely to become the first man into outer space. On May 5 the United States came up with a less spectacular but not less important space probe. Com. Allen B. Sheppard uttered the words, "Man what a ride!" after he returned from a fifteen minute jaunt in which the Navy's Redstone rocket boosted him 115 miles up and 302 miles downrange from Cape Canaveral.

On the local scene, after two unsuccessful attempts, the school bond proposal passed on the third election which will provide Cando with a much needed new high school. The new building will be completed sometime in the early part of next year.
